

United Methodist Women is an agency of The United Methodist Church, with 800,000 members engaged in mission and advocacy for women, children and youth around the world. United Methodist Women owns and manages the Church Center for the United Nations (CCUN) and makes the building available to the UN-NGO Community.

Globally, United Methodist Women engages in advocacy, education and leadership development to combat all forms of violence against women and girls.

The organization focuses on addressing sexual and gender-based violence in war and conflict, domestic violence, violence against migrant women and uprooted populations, and human trafficking.
