

You are warmly welcome to join us at a major parallel event at CSW 58th:

Wednesday 12 March 2014, 10.30 am in Guild Hall of the Armenian Convention Centre, (630 2nd Ave, NY, NY)

MDG Acceleration through Transformative Policing and Security

Recognition of gender-responsive policing and security has not been given the high priority it deserves. Our event highlights the importance of gender-skilled, accountable policing and security to move on the MDGs Post-2015. Come and listen to our speakers and put your views to the panel.

Saraswathi Menon - UN WOMEN: Policy, Policing and Security: post-2015 era
Director, Policy Division, UN WOMEN New York

Jane Townsley - The Challenges of Implementing Gender-responsive Policing (Afghanistan, Lebanon, Kosovo)
President of International Association of Women Police (IAWP)

Julia Jaegar - Working with UN WOMEN: Empowering Policewomen in Kosovo
European Coordinator for IAWP

Stephanie Harding - My experience of mixed-gendered international policing: who benefits?
2nd Vice-President IAWP, USA

Moderated by Dr Tuula Nieminen, UN WOMEN NC UK

Further Details & Post-CSW Queries:

Please contact the Project Lead, Alice Fookes of UN Women UKNC, at alicefookes@hotmail.com, tel. +44(0)7771 877719.

Progress for Women and Girls is Progress for All